

CEM PRESENTS

CEM Distinguished Speaker Series

Tuesday, February 15 | 8:30am - 9:30am ET
Virtual Event | Via Zoom

The Future of the Global Supply Chain

Featuring Spencer Fung, Executive Chairman, Li & Fung, Hong Kong. Spencer Fung ('96) will discuss the impact of COVID-19, digitalization, e-commerce and other important trends on the global supply chain. Find out when the world's snarled supply chains might return to normal, and what the "new normal" may look like. (Li & Fung is a 116-year old Hong Kong-based global supply chain company.)

Moderators: Professors Nada Sanders and Ravi Ramamurti

Register

CEM and NU's Africa Global Initiative

Wednesday, February 16 | 8:30am - 11:00am ET
Virtual Event | Via Zoom

Africa Business Conference

Conference will feature policymakers, CEOs, and experts on the opportunities and challenges of doing business in Africa.

Speakers:

Florizelle Liser, President & CEO, Corporate Council on Africa

Rama Yade, Senior Director, Africa Center, Atlantic Council
Dilip Pal, Chief Financial Officer, Safaricom

N Northeastern
Center for Emerging Markets

AFRICA
GLOBAL INITIATIVE
NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

Register

CEM's 2nd China Lecture

Thursday, February 24 | 5:30pm - 6:30pm ET
Virtual Event | Via Zoom

US-China Relationship Going Forward

Featuring Jack F. Perkowski, Founder/Chairman of JFP Holdings and (earlier) ASIMCO China. Jack Perkowski left Wall Street in the early 1980s with no background in China or manufacturing to found a successful Chinese auto parts company that has since been sold to Bain Capital. Currently he advises US and Chinese companies looking to expand into each other's countries. He is also the bestselling author of Managing the Dragon and a frequent keynote speaker.

Register

The Nardone Family Seminar Series

Wednesday, March 30 | 12:00pm - 1:15pm ET
Virtual Event | Via Zoom

When and How Refugees Thrive in Host Countries

Featuring C. Annique Un, Associate Professor of International Business & Strategy at Northeastern University. The talk will analyze how refugees can contribute to resettlement countries by becoming innovative employees. Refugees are individuals forced to migrate to another country in search of safety, in a hurry, and with few resources.

Register

Visit our website for more information.

D'Amore McKim School of Business
The Center for Emerging Markets

309 Hayden Hall
360 Huntington Ave
Boston, Massachusetts 02115
